

Help Develop the Next BIG Exhibition

The New York Hall of Science would like to invite your family to help us develop our next exhibition. As a special thank you, all students who participate will receive FREE general admission for their family (up to four individuals), and a special gift.

We are looking for students in grades 6 – 12 to participate in a 20-minute evaluation session, which consists of testing exhibit prototypes and an interview with an evaluator. The exhibition will look at the role evolution can play in understanding health. Comments from participants will help us make this exhibition fun and relevant to students.
